Calming Solutions for Your Dog

#1 Vet Recommended Pheromone Solution to Help Calm Your Dog

ThunderEase® mimics the calming pheromone that a mother dog emits while nursing her puppies, which helps your dog to feel calmer and more comfortable in all situations.

ThunderEase® uses the ADAPTIL® formula, which is the #1 Vet Recommended Pheromone Solution to help dogs adjust to challenging situations and curb unwanted stress-related behaviors.

Available in 3 formats:

Diffuser for continuous calm at home

Spray for on-the-go

Collar for continuous calm wherever your dog goes

If your dog struggles with being home alone, ThunderEase® Calming Diffuser is especially great to help keep them calm while you're away. Simply plug in the diffuser for 24/7 relaxing pheromones.

Use ThunderEase® Calming Spray in your car or travel crate to help reduce stress behaviors while traveling with your dog. Signs of stress during travel could be panting, whining, barking, pacing and drooling.<sup>3</sup>

ThunderEase® customers saw improvement in anxiety issues in over 80% of their dogs.<sup>4</sup>

Calm Comes in a Bite-Sized Bit

ThunderWunders® Dog Calming Chews help promote rest and relaxation for your dog, so you can spend less time struggling and more time snuggling.

Packed full of thiamine, L-Tryptophan, melatonin, and other calming ingredients, our chews may help your dog relax in situations that may cause them anxiety.

ThunderWunders® can be used in stressful situations like fireworks, traveling, and grooming.<sup>3</sup>

✔ Made in the USA with globally sourced ingredients

✔ NASC Certified

ThunderShirt® is the original vet recommended calming solution that helps keep dogs calm in a drug-free way.<sup>3</sup>

Like swaddling an infant, our vest's patented<sup>5</sup> design applies gentle, constant pressure to calm all types of anxiety, fear, and over-excitement behaviors in dogs.

Giving a gentle squeeze with light pressure, ThunderShirt® is great for keeping your dog calm in all sorts of stressful situations.

Try ThunderShirt® for thunder, fireworks, separation anxiety, travel, and vet visits.<sup>3</sup>

ThunderShirt® customers saw improvement in anxiety issues in over 85% of their dogs.<sup>4</sup>

“As a board-certified veterinary behaviorist, I see the importance of approaching any behavior concern with a multimodal plan. As part of the plan, I recommend ThunderEase pheromones to every canine client that I see. Some of my anxious pets respond remarkably well to the calming pheromones and the caretakers can even tell if they forget to refill on time. Having a product with no significant side effects that has had such an obvious effect is extremely helpful in clinical practice.”
